"HER-
CU-LEX"

for

Nerve

Weakness

"HER-CU-LEX" is the latest invention of Dr. Sanden, the pioneer of Self-Treatment with Electricity. Popular throughout the world as a natural, common sense remedy for Nerve and Brain Exhaustion, Indigestion, Constipation, Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Declining Vigor, Urinary Weakness, Sluggish Organs, Impotency, etc.

Not "a cure-all" but an ideal cure for all disorders or weakness resulting from overwork or excess of any nature. It is simple, harmless, convenient; has a perfectly constructed battery enclosed in comfortable cloth case. Worn about the waist nights, or during the evening, the mild, soothing currents invigorate the nerve and vital centres, awaken dormant nerves, strengthen relaxed muscles and induce natural secretion of the vital fluids. This improves digestion, enriches quality of the blood and accelerates its circulation, and has a direct beneficial influence upon the bowels, regulating their action in a natural way. Used during a period of rest, it conforms with the processes of Nature in every way.

Dr. Sanden's method of self-treatment, WITHOUT DRUGS, is the only self-treatment consistent with natural law and appeals to reason and common sense as filling a long felt want among those who are neither sick nor well, who are "all run down," and just dragging along in a half hearted manner; also, to those who have concluded that drugs cannot cure them. With ordinary care, "HER-CU-LEX" will last for one year, is not bulky, makes no noise and is as comfortable as your clothing. If you are weak or otherwise ailing, send for Dr. Sanden's latest book, "Health in Nature," free upon request, securely sealed.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING IN BOMBAY.

The Rail Gaffar of Bombay reports that the Brush Electric Engineering Company, Limited, are announced to have secured a site in Bombay for the erection of a central generating station for the supply of electric light and power in the city. The land selected is on the northern side of Prince's Dock, where a building is arranged to be erected. The work will be finished within a twelve month. The machinery is under construction at the Company's works in England, and according to their chief engineer, the supply of electrical energy for lighting and power will be available in the Fort within twelve months. It will be interesting to know that at the rates fixed by the Company "the cost to an ordinary consumer will work out at less than the cost of gas or oil." Much is expected from the new Company, and considering the reputation they have achieved we are encouraged to believe that they will be able to do much.

THE VICEROY OF INDIA.

After persistent rumours that Mr. Brodick has been selected to succeed Lord Curzon, there comes the statement, says The Rail Gaffar of Bombay, that His Excellency's term of office has been extended for two years. Lord Curzon will, it is said, take three months' leave before his extension begins, and visit England in the interval. Whether there is any truth in this or not, public opinion has shown itself to be unanimous in wishing that the present illustrious holder of the office may be persuaded to continue at the post for another two years at least. It is not only to see him complete his programme of domestic reforms that India wants him at the present juncture. The foreign relations of India are, according to all reports, not the happiest; and the presence of a strong and experienced Viceroy like Lord Curzon at the helm would go far in instilling confidence into the people. With two such able men at the head of affairs as Lord Curzon and Kitchener, India will feel herself much stronger and better able to make a stand against Russia and all possible enemies than she could otherwise do.

CAPE TO CAIRO RAILWAY PROSPECTS.

LORD CROMER'S CRITICISM AND THE CHARTERED COMPANY'S INTENTIONS.

Lord Cromer, in his report on the Sudan, just issued, discloses his want of faith in the Cape to Cairo railway project. He writes:—"The necessity and practicability of a railway (from Khartoum) to Uganda, and so onwards to the south, has, I venture to think, never yet been shown, and possibly, in view of the very great physical difficulties to be encountered, never will be shown."

In the light of a statement of such a character from a man in the position of Lord Cromer, it is as well that the exact position of the project should be stated. It is common knowledge that the railway from Bulawayo is being carried north to the Zambesi, in the neighbourhood of the Victoria Falls. This section of the line will certainly be completed before 1905, in the summer of which year the British Association is expected to pay a visit to South Africa and to travel by rail to the Falls.

We understand that it is the settled policy of the directors of the Chartered Company to carry the railway onward from the Zambesi, through Lewanika's country to the southern end of Lake Tanganyika, which is in British territory. That, for some years, may be the terminus of the line. By an agreement concluded by Mr. Rhodes with the German Imperial Government, the Chartered Company has the right, under certain conditions, to continue the railway through German East Africa to the frontiers of Uganda. The construction of this section will largely depend upon whether the Germans are prepared to build a feeder line from the coast at Dar-es-Salaam to Tanganyika.

In any case Mr. Rhodes did not contemplate himself carrying the railway beyond Uganda. He held that the building of the remaining link, that connecting Egypt and the Sudan with Uganda, was the work of the Anglo-Egyptian authorities. If Lord Cromer's view is correct, that link may never be completed. Yet, provision for the building of the railway was made in last year's treaty with the Negus of Ethiopia, and by the time—say, ten years hence—that the line from the Cape reaches Uganda the state of affairs in the north may have so altered as to make it worth while to complete the through service to Cairo.

In the meantime, it may be pointed out that there is a regular monthly service of steamers on the Nile between Gondokoro and Khartoum. The "round trip" from Cairo to Cairo via the Nile, Uganda Railway, and Red Sea route, is now merely a question of £ s. d.—P. M. G.

THE CUSTOMS RENT ALLOWANCES, ETC.

The China Gazette hears that the I. G. is annoyed at the repeated applications by the Shanghai outdoor staff for an increase of rent allowance. He is now believed to be contemplating issuing new orders for their guidance in matrimonial matters which will be something as follows:—

1.—Tidesurveyors only are allowed to marry. 2.—Assistant tidesurveyors may get engaged, but they must not marry until they have received their appointment as tidesurveyors. 3.—Examiners of all grades are strictly prohibited to marry or to get engaged. If an examiner becomes engaged, contrary to this regulation, he will be fined fifty Haikuan taels, and if he does not break off his engagement after that he will be discharged. 4.—Any tidesurveyor who has the temerity to propose to a girl, without a special license from the I. G., will be cautioned for a week in front of the Custom House.

5.—The I. G. may grant exceptions to all these rules. But it is of no use if the new apply for such exceptions. The young ladies should write to him, enclosing their photos, and then the I. G. will see what can be done.

THE French soldiers who have been despatched to Kwangsi have entered Kwei-lin, the capital of the Province, says a telegraphic report to the Hai Wu Pu, on 23rd ult, and it is reported in Peking that there is reason to believe that the acting Viceroy Teh Hsu of Liang Kwang has been bribed by the French authorities to allow the soldiers of the Republic to enter Kwangsi Province.

THE NAVY LEAGUE.

LECTURE BY MR. H. F. WYATT.

A well-attended meeting of members and friends of the Hongkong Branch of the Navy League was held in St. Andrew's Hall last evening under the presidency of H. E. the Governor, Sir H. A. Blake, G.C.M.G. The principal speaker was Mr. H. F. Wyatt, a delegate from the Navy League in England, and who has recently been lecturing in Canada, Japan and Shanghai. On the platform with him were H. E. the Governor, Messrs. H. E. Pollock, K.C., E. D. Law, M. W. Slade, B. Layton and R. C. Wilcox, while Lady Blake occupied a seat in the body of the hall.

In introducing the lecturer to the meeting, Sir Henry said Mr. Wyatt had been delegated by the Navy League at home to bring before the people of the British Empire in the Colonies, and to stimulate their interest in the condition of our Navy. We in Hongkong, who saw before us the great ships of every nation of the world that day by day entered our port, had no need to be reminded of the fact that our existence depended upon the perfection of our Navy. This was no party question. The labours of the Navy League in keeping before the people of the British Empire the minimum requirements to satisfy the conditions of safety were labours that must be appreciated by every Government. Supremacy at sea was absolutely necessary for us, and whatever the cost, we must secure at once that the Navy should be sufficient, efficient, and ready. (Applause.) His Excellency then formally introduced Mr. Wyatt to the meeting.

Mr. Wyatt met with a warm reception on rising to address the meeting, and, in expressing his admiration at seeing so many present that afternoon, said it was known in England that the Hongkong Branch was a powerful one permeated by a spirit of strength and keenness. After reviewing the history of our Navy and the formation of the League, he dwelt on the present position of affairs, observing that we were now throughout the world challenged by mighty rivals, people who competed with us at once in the paths of war and of diplomacy, who wrestled with us at every turn, tried to acquire dominion in every direction and looked upon us with jealous eyes. He was not speaking as one who wanted to incite animosity against other nations. He was only asking them to realise obvious facts; so clear that only the blind could fail to see them. Ever since the opening of the Suez Canal that competition had been intensified. France and Germany and Russia—France and Germany in particular—had taken advantage of it and came out into the Far East where before they had hardly a footing. France had now an Empire in the East and it was more than probable that it was going to be very considerably enlarged. The immense dominion of Russia, hardly needed to be pointed out; of recent years Russia had spread herself throughout Asia, and they knew how her railways and her legions were crossing over the Continent. Her sea power was increasing enormously. It would not be long before Russia would be the second sea power of the world. Already her navy was a very great force. Surely, in the face of these challenges that had changed the conditions of the earth, and of the fact also that wherever foreign nations established their dominion they established tariffs calculated to shut out our trade—in every instance they either had done so or were going to do so—surely, it behooved us to be up and doing. The trade of British people the world over depended for its continuance upon the supremacy of their navy, and it behooved them to keep that fact ever before their eyes. In self-governing Colonies as well as in British communities the League had a great mission to fulfil, and to do it adequately required the efforts not of one but of a hundred men to go forth and preach the gospel that England must not take a back place amongst the nations of the world—that she must hold the premier position, and that there were men abroad as at home ready to vote their best efforts to secure that position. (Applause.) In the East the Navy League had a great work to perform. The question had been asked—"What good can we do out here?" Incalculable good could be done; for, as in the case of the Hongkong branch, the first formed outside of Great Britain, invaluable suggestions could be given to the League at home which would serve to extend its sphere of usefulness. A crisis in the world's history was approaching, and although the great final struggle might be delayed a little longer, it was bound to come. When we fought, we must fight to win, and in order to win we must have every detail of the war thought out beforehand and be ready for every emergency. Mr. Wyatt expressed on behalf of his colleagues at home and of himself their most earnest and sincere thanks for the strong and vigorous way in which the work of the Navy League had been carried out here. The Navy League were due to the committee who had so ably fulfilled their duties. Such a display of zeal heartened the League in its mission, and if the League succeeded in its endeavour to rouse and maintain the necessary spirit of interest and enthusiasm in the British people at home and abroad, a great achievement would be performed, and as one family throughout the world we would be able to face the future with confidence. (Applause.)

His Excellency, in thanking Mr. Wyatt for his most instructive and eloquent address, said the Hongkong Branch of the League comprised only about a quarter of the British population, and there was ample room for expansion. Referring to the necessity for a strong Navy, he said there were two ways of regarding the matter. One was the necessity for a strong Navy having regard to future war, and the other was the necessity for a strong Navy having regard to the fact that in trade matters we were the treasure-house of the world, and we wanted that strong Navy to secure lasting peace. (Applause.) It was in that aspect, His Excellency said, that he preferred to look at it. War was a dreadful thing, and in spending our money to secure the best and the strongest Navy in the world he hoped we were also expending it to secure the blessings of peace. (Applause.)

When the day of trial came, concluded the speaker, we should look forward over the sea and over the land for that help which, he was quite certain, if the people were only properly trained, we should never look for in vain in any part of the Empire. (Applause.) Mr. Wyatt, in acknowledging the thanks said it was very true that the upkeep of our naval strength was the chief guarantee of peace; therefore the Navy League might be looked upon as the greatest peace society on earth. To leave the British Empire undefended or too weakly defended would be not only a piece of insanity but a crime against civilisation and the peace of the world. With reference to the introduction of naval reserves he recalled the fact that he was one of a deputation who waited upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier when the Colonial Premiers were home for the Jubilee, to bring that very point before him. Canada had now begun to recognise the duty that lay upon her to do something to assist in the naval defence of the Empire. (Applause.) Mr. Pollock, K.C., in proposing a vote of thanks to His Excellency, said he was specially glad to see him in the chair, as an erroneous idea seemed to be abroad that in some way or another the Navy League were against the Government and that it was not becoming a high official to be a member of the Navy League. The presence of His Excellency that afternoon might tend, he thought, very effectively to dispose of that erroneous impression. (Applause.) So from the Navy League being against the Government, the object of the League had been, ever since its inception, to support the Government to the best of its power. (Hear, hear.) The object of the League had been so to stir up public opinion in Great Britain to the importance of a paramount Navy that the electorate of Great Britain might have brought home to them that a predominantly strong Navy was absolutely necessary, not for the purpose of aggression, but simply and solely for the security of the Empire and for the maintenance of that grand heritage which had been handed down to us. (Applause.)

The proceedings then terminated.

SANITARY BOARD.

A meeting of the Sanitary Board will be held to-morrow, Thursday, at 4.15 p.m. The following are the orders of the day.

1. Reply from Government relative to closing the Chinese Theatres.
2. Letter from Government relative to the use of a Clayton's machine for disinfecting ships.
3. Correspondence relative to flushing sewers with sea water.
4. Correspondence relative to infectious diseases at Shanghai.
5. Report relative to the plague at Amoy.
6. The President pursuant to notice will move—

That the Board, in accordance with Section 19 of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance, 1903, authorise Mr. Hammer, who has been appointed to act as Assistant Secretary, to perform all or any of the duties of the Secretary.

7. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., pursuant to notice will move—

That having regard to the letter, signed "Anti-dumping," which appeared in the Hongkong Daily Press of the 22nd March, 1903, the Acting Medical Officer of Health be requested to report in writing to the Board as soon as possible—

1. What percentage of bodies (giving figures) in proportion to the number of plague cases (giving figures) were dumped in the streets during the following periods, respectively:—

- (i). The year 1898.
- (ii). The year 1899.
- (iii). The year 1900.
- (iv). The year 1901.
- (v). The year 1902.
- (vi). The year 1903, from the 1st January until the date of report.

2. What measures are now being taken with a view to minimise such dumping, and has the Acting Medical Officer of Health any suggestions to make as to the adoption of any further measures for diminishing such dumping.
3. How many convictions in respect of the dumping of dead bodies in the streets have taken place before a Police Magistrate:—

- (i). During the year 1900.
- (ii). During the year 1901.
- (iii). During the year 1902.
- (iv). From the 1st of January, 1903, to the date of report.

What penalties were awarded in respect of each of such convictions, and state the cases, if any, in which the party elected to pay the fine instead of undergoing imprisonment.

4. What measures are now adopted for—

- (a). Temporarily housing people whose rooms are being disinfected in consequence of plague having occurred; and
- (b). Protecting the furniture and property of such people from damage.

Has the Acting Medical Officer of Health any suggestions to make for the improvement of such measure?

5. Whether it is the fact that in former years only the flat where a case of plague occurred was disinfected and not the whole house, and if so, when was the former practice discontinued and for what reasons.
6. Whether it is necessary that winter clothes, locked up in a box in a flat in which plague has occurred should be disinfected and for how long has such practice been in force.

Whether the following statements, which are contained in the above-mentioned letter of "Anti-dumping" are accurate or not, and, if inaccurate, in what respects they are so:—

- (i). "As soon as a death is reported a policeman is despatched to the house where it has occurred, and the inmates are not allowed to leave till the body has been examined by a doctor and the cause of death certified, which, as a rule, takes over twenty-four hours."
- (ii). "If the death is pronounced to be from plague the Sanitary Board officials take charge of the premises and the occupants of the whole house are turned out into the street with their furniture and all their clothing, winter and summer, which is emptied from the boxes and disinfected."
- (iii). "After fumigation, the whole house is closed and nailed and the occupants are left to shift for themselves with their furniture as best as they can."
- (iv). "During what is called the disinfecting operation, leather boxes, chests-of-drawers, mattresses, and other furniture are damaged to such an extent that they are unfit for further use."
- (v). "A case of plague occurred early this month at No. 31 Elgin Street, first floor. As usual the whole house was closed and the winter clothing, which was in boxes, taken and disinfected and the inmates were turned out. Some of them, who could not find any place to go to live, remained in the street with their furniture for nearly a week, in all kinds of weather, with the result that one of them, an old man, got ill through exposure, and was taken to hospital where he died."
- (vi). "There are several instances of people turned out from plague-infected houses in Hollywood Road and Cockburn Street being in the public street for several days."

8. The Vice-President pursuant to notice will move—

That with a view to encouraging the inhabitants to report cases of plague and submit them for treatment, the Board recommend that arrangements be made for opening temporary hospitals in various districts of the City and Kowloon, suitable premises being hired or temporary structures erected, where practicable for the purpose.

The hospitals to be under proper supervision and the arrangements to be completed in readiness for next spring, when cases of plague may be expected to recur.

9. Mr. A. Rumjahn pursuant to notice will ask—

DRAGON FESTIVAL AT CANTON.

INTERESTING SCENES.

Last Sunday was a big day among the Cantonese in the City of Rams, and one of exceptional interest to the little community puffing and panting in the sweltering heat on the Shamien. It was dragon festival day and from early morning to sunset the river and canal were occupied by a long series of processions of those very long boats with bows resembling a dragon's head and sterns built in the style of long tails. They were narrow boats each holding from 50 to 100 men. In some there were more than 80 men, dressed in gorgeous colours and embroideries, and all donning large Chinese straw hats. It has been stated by many that the dragon festival is dying out in the Treaty Ports but on Sunday, those who took the opportunity of the excursion trips by s.s. Kiushan and s.s. Sanchung, can certainly testify to the contrary. A very pretty sight was occasioned by the di-play-boats, taking advantage of the clearance made in the Shamien canal by order of the British and French Consuls, and circling the island of Shamien. Unfortunately two of the largest dragon boats collided in mid-stream and precipitated about 40 men into the water. It was a marvel that only two were drowned, the river at the time being congested with launches and small craft witnessing the processions. The streets of the city were crowded with the younger portion of the population making merry, and street hawkers did a big trade. Nearly 100 steam-launches left for the West River on an excursion to Yuet Shing, the city where "The Temple of the Mother of the Dragon" is situated. To this city, at this time of the year, thousands of pilgrims make their way to worship at the shrine of the dragon. It will be remembered that the place is one of the eight opened last February as a port of call for ships of all flags. In previous years only launches flying the Chinese flag were allowed to call. There is little doubt that we shall hear during the next few days of several piracies of launches on this route although the Chinese authorities have taken extra precautions in placing additional armed guards on all boats proceeding to Yuet Shing. The bunding along the water front was crissed by native sight-seers and lined with hawkers of all kinds. The Shamien native guards were doubled and only the smaller gates of bridges leading from Shamien were allowed to be opened even for Europeans. The weather was magnificent, and those visitors from Hongkong who took advantage of the trips saw a sight that will long remain in their memory.

CHARTERING OF RUSSIAN TRANSPORTS.

The Jih Jih learns that a number of Norwegian steamers at Vladivostok have been chartered by the Russians for transport purposes.

THE PLAGUE RETURN.

Plague statistics for the three days ended at noon yesterday came to hand too late last evening for insertion in our columns. We note that 53 cases were notified as having occurred in the Colony, while 38 of them terminated fatally. Two European cases figured on the return one being from 34 Elgin Street and the other at the Water Police Station in No. 12, Health District. As usual cases of bodies having been dumped were very conspicuous, no fewer than 23 plague victims being found in various parts of the Colony. The figures for the twenty-four hours ended at noon to-day bring the total number of cases since the beginning of the year to 98. There were 18 fresh cases notified, of which 13 proved fatal.

In view of the magnitude of the issue, the newspapers and the Unionist members of the House of Commons are chary of committing themselves to a definite opinion; but there appears to be no doubt that while Mr. Chamberlain has enlisted warm support from a section of the Unionists, he has ventured further than a number of the Ministerialists, including some members of the Government, are prepared to go.

Canton, 31st May, 1903.

South China has long been looking forward to the inauguration of the now long-promised railroads, and a correspondent gives from authentic sources the following details from which it will be seen that in a very short time we shall see some material form from the efforts of the China Development Company. The locating of the line from Samshui to Hankow, interrupted about a month ago, partly by high water in the river and partly by the hostile actions of the natives of the country through which the operators are working, has been taken up again by Mr. Williams (Locating Engineer) and party, who left Canton in company with 73 Chinese soldiers. The latter consisted of 35 railroad guards (paid by the company) and 38 Imperial troops. As far as is known the authorities of Yuan Tang and Tsing Yuen, the districts where hostility was shown, seem to be doing their best to make up for past shortcomings and have even gone so far as to offer a big reward for the recovery of the property, surveying instruments, charts, etc., which were lost by the former locating party during the trouble at Yuan Tang—the occasion on which the U.S. Callao proceeded up river to render assistance. The present locating party went out of Canton well armed, and is prepared for emergencies. The grading from Canton to Fatsan is almost finished and the laying of the rails will soon commence. The first shipment of rails arrived from Hongkong by junks on Saturday last, the 30th May. It is expected that the railway will be in operation inside of four months. It would have been running a good deal earlier but for the retardation caused solely by the Chinese contractors. Their stubbornness seems proverbial, and in this case was very pronounced; they would rather do their work over three or four times than acknowledge the engineers' methods in the first place. An interesting feature of the American Railway Company is the so-called "Railway Guards" referred to above, which consist of a body of Chinese soldiers at present drilled by an American veteran soldier much to the disgust of officers and men. An amusing incident occurred when the drill master wished to instruct the Chinese officers. They were petty mandarins and could not do "coolie pidgin." Not quite liking the American system of drill they preferred him to operate upon the men only. The men are armed with Martini-Henry rifles, and no doubt with a little dressing up by the present drill master will make a better show than they did at Yuan Tang and will also produce an impression upon the country folk where the railway is operating. The correspondent is informed on excellent authority that on all railways on the Canton side of Samshui electric traction is to be used while steam will be the motive power from Samshui to Hankow.

THE DRAGON BOAT FESTIVAL.

Yesterday was a general holiday. Shops were closed and the streets were filled with all classes of people out for a holiday. The day was fine and was all the more enjoyable after the long spell of wet weather. The river was lined with boats from early morning, the sight-seers having taken up their positions in the night. The dragon boats were not as numerous as formerly nor do they appear to have spent as much time on decorations. However, during the day there was a goodly number of boats and the sight-seers cheered and made noise enough to satisfy the occupants of the dragon boats. To-day not the sound of a drum has been heard. This is so unusual that we inquired the cause. It appears that the prefect of Kwong Chau Fu put out a proclamation some days ago requesting the gentries and people to refrain from the dragon boat festivities this year. Among other reasons it was urged that trouble might arise and lives be lost. What the trouble expected was the official did not make quite clear. Some wise heads say the officials feared an attack on Canton. However, everything passed off quietly and the dragon boat festival came to a close last night.

THE ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

The Customs authorities have just begun to make preparations for the St. Louis Exposition. They expect to make a good showing, but it is too soon to say just what can be done.

THE PLAGUE.

There are a good many cases of plague every day, both in the city and in the country about Canton.

THE WEATHER.

May was an unusually wet month. Rain fell almost every day. June has begun well and it looks as if we might have some fine weather and that the bright sunshine may put a stop to the plague.

MACAO NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Macao, 31st May, 1903.

THE RICKSHA COOLIES' STRIKE.

Yesterday the rickshas made their appearance again on the road, which for the past three days had all the appearance of being deserted by the absence of the public vehicles. It is reported that the Governor directed the police commandant to consent to the ricksha drivers plying as before. It is also said that the municipality is going to alter the scale of fare and raise it to ten cents an hour for the hire of a vehicle. According to the printed tariff the legal fare now is only five cents an hour. The municipality never compelled the coolies to wear a uniform. I was told that some years ago the ricksha coolies went on strike and the municipality yielded to their wish by having the regulation withdrawn which it had promulgated. China is the land of strikes such as are known in this country from remote times. If the inhabitants of a Chinese province or city consider any Government order to be unjust, they do not obey it and passively resist it by going on strike, and the Government finds itself obliged to abrogate the order. Strikes are a necessity of a democratic country. The Chinese Government is ruled by its people, of whom it is in great fear. It is the ancient traditions, custom and universal justice that prevail in this empire.

SCARCITY OF HOUSES.

There is at present felt a great scarcity of suitable house accommodation. The Government ordered the demolition of certain houses in various districts, which are not yet reconstructed. Some of the smaller houses being built for the Chinese near the Avenida lack good hygienic conditions. The Government ought to lay out roads in Penha hill, so that later the district can be developed by the building of houses, villas, &c. It is one of the most salubrious and commanding situations in Macao. In Chinatown the agglomeration of buildings is excessive. If precaution is not taken in good time to check the congestion of the population by overcrowding epidemics might work havoc in the city.

A DISGUSTING EXHIBITION.

I have at length plucked up courage to visit the tiger recently captured near the West River, and imagine my disgust when, on paying ten cents, I was ushered into a low, dark room in the presence of the beast, which I found jammed between iron bars, unable to lie in a natural position or move more than a few feet in any direction. The cage is some six feet in length, three and a half feet in height, and no more than eighteen inches in width, while the poor animal inside it is about the same dimensions. It is a lovely specimen of a Chinese tiger with beautiful fur, exceptionally well striped and, although quite young has a fine head and powerful paws. That it is fierce there is no denying, and that under present conditions, it will soon go mad and die is equally certain, as the sufferings it endures in its small cage are made ten times worse by the fact that every visitor gives it a series of cowardly prods with sticks or scabbards. Unless the animal is put into a cage at least six times the size of its present "instrument of torture," the Macao authorities should promptly close the exhibition and dispose of the beast to those who know how animals should be treated. The show as at present conducted is a disgrace to the proprietors, the patrons and the authorities.

BAND PERFORMANCES.

Band performances in the public gardens on Sunday evenings provide a source of interesting study to those who are content to sit at ease and puff a fragrant weed in some secluded spot. The programme opens, rickshas pull up at the gate and early arrivals, mostly comprising members of the native population, are soon strolling along the paths. To all appearances they enjoy the music, the cool air, and the company of each other's society. Half an hour later your Hongkong visitor swaggers in, afraid almost of soiling his patent boots or crumpling his glossy shirt front. He does not seem to be enjoying the music, or the cool air and wears a worried look. Surely, you have enough of evening dress during the winter months in Hongkong, and could well afford to leave it in charge of the boy. However, there are others who prefer to visit us for a free and easy rest and as such your correspondent is enjoying a few days' sojourn where fashions and fancies are not wanted, and where the delights of the place rest in discarding the pomp and vanities of Hongkong.

RUSSIAN LATEST MOVE.

(From a Correspondent.)

LONDON, May 2nd.

The recent Russian note to the Court of Peking, which, read it as one may, means the virtual annexation of Manchuria by that power, has not come as a surprise. This development has long been foreseen and predicted by many, who from experience have gained a real knowledge of the tortuous meanderings of Slavonic good faith and who are consequently able to appreciate at their just value the smooth promises of the government of the Great White Bear. Gratter le Russe et on a vu le Tartar, says a witty French proverb, which, true though it be, certainly finds no place in the written clauses of the Dual Alliance. Who says Tartar says Mongol, and were it not for the commercial interest at stake in this question and the sanguinary conflict which may yet result from the same, one would feel inclined to type into a Homeric simile at the thought of these blood-brothers trying each to win the rubber at the nifty game. To those who are acquainted with the official methods of Peking there is a certain grim humour in the query as to whether the subtle procrastinating cunning of Celestial diplomacy will be a match for the similar attribute of the Tartar-Russian, et Mongol. The powers that be in China are the original cause of the present climax, there can be no doubt. For months past they have been using the seemingly disinterested protection of their Muscovite friend as a buffer against the legitimate demands of the other powers, and by so doing have played into the hands of the nation which now despoils them. China has made the nations dance; can she be surprised now the piper sends his bill in? Exchanges inform us that the government of the United States has protested against the Russian demands; it is more than probable, however, that her action will end there. Our cousin, keen though they be on the extension of their commerce, are not likely to go to the extremity of active hostilities with a European power for the sake of retaining one market, which, as yet, is of no particular importance as an outlet for American products. France was certainly cognizant long ago of the bent of her ally's policy and has accepted and agreed to the same. It is very doubtful, however, that in the event of the crisis reaching an acute stage, the citizens of that Republic would be willing to sacrifice men and money to aid in the execution of Russia's policy in the Far East. Indeed, if one can judge by several recent very candid opinions expressed by a section of the Parisian press, a spirit of disillusion is creeping in concerning the benefits to be reaped by France from her alliance with the most autocratic of governments. Up to the present the profits have been decidedly one-sided. Thanks to French money, Russia has been saved from bankruptcy, she has rearmament and reorganized her army, strengthened her fleet and has been able to persist in her policy in the Balkans and in China. France, however, has gained nothing from the partnership, and she is as far if not further than ever from the realization of the unspoken, though ever latent, and natural ambition of the nation, namely, of wiping out the insult inflicted in 1890, and the return of the "Two Lost Provinces." Let those who have any doubts as to whether this spirit is still alive stand for one short half-hour on the morning of the 14th July on the terrace of the famous "Jardine des Tuilleries," at that corner which overlooks the rue de Rivoli and the Place de la Concorde. Let them note the floral offerings which are placed by hundreds on the statue of Strasbourg. These offerings range from the hundred franc wreath brought there in the carriage of the rich to a ten centime bunch of violets detached from the corsage of a pretty seamstress as she passes. This demonstrates more eloquently than words the sentiments of the nation. Though it has been announced from Berlin in a semi-official manner, none will be surprised to learn that Germany has approved of the latest move of her neighbour, for this is consistent with the Bismarckian policy of her Government. When the "mailed fist" was brandished and the welkin rang with the shout, "Hoch! The open door!" the Prussian winked over his shoulder at the Slav, a wink that meant, "Just to make them happy, you know." Besides the Russian precedent in Manchuria would seemingly authorize a German imitation elsewhere. A precedent is sometimes a very useful pretext and the Yangtze valley is a very tempting bait. Teutonic interests bulk big there, and are daily gaining in importance. There were also other inducements to the Fatherland for adopting a do-as-you-please attitude with regard to the manoeuvres of the Russ, amongst which the exposure and consequent "fiasco" of the scheming relative to the evacuation of Shanghai in October last, the Venezuelan business, Canada's tariff war and the Baghdad Railway were not of the least importance. Also it would be absurd to blind ourselves to the fact that for the past twenty years Germany has systematically opposed, either openly or otherwise, all British projects for the existence and development of trade, while studiously furthering her own interests in the meanwhile. The Manchurian question has offered her another occasion to continue her programme. It remains to be seen what form the action of Great Britain and Japan will take. It would be a useless waste of time and space to enlarge on our present interests in Manchuria, and the reality of their importance is too well known to every British resident in China to require repetition. It would be of more interest to know what measures will be taken by our Government to ensure the safety of those interests both present and future. That Japan will make every effort to prevent the actual accomplishment of Russian projects, that her interests in the quasi-annexed province, both political and commercial, are enormous, are questions that can be confidently answered in the affirmative; but it is doubtful whether the strong opposition she would most certainly offer would be successful without help from Great Britain. It is to be desired that our present Cabinet will see its way to the inauguration of a new era in their Eastern policy and that, conjointly with Japan, speedy and energetic action will be taken. There is no doubt that the commercial and political interests of the two countries offer sufficient reasons for a mutual understanding, and the treaty of the 30th January, 1902, a sure base for joint action. We have no desire to see the "dogs of war let loose," and if it be possible to draw conclusions from similar situations in the past a firm front would most probably be productive of a "climb down," but there are few of us who would not rather accept the bitter necessity of stern strife than be witnesses of a keep-ill-called-for, milk-and-water protest with its consequent shame and loss of prestige, not to mention the probable abandonment of a plucky ally who undoubtedly looks to us for support.

GOVERNOR WANG AND SHANGHAI PAPERS.

The Sinwengpao contains what purports to be a copy of a telegram from Governor Wang Chih-chun, of Kwangsi, to Tang Ching-chun, Vice-President of the Board of War, the latter being a native of Kwangsi province and a younger brother of the late Governor of Formosa, Tang Ching-sung, better known as the "President" of the transient "Republic of Formosa," 1895, when the island was ceded to Japan. In his telegram Governor Wang Chih-chun informs Vice-President Tang Ching-chun about the receipt by the former of a telegraphic dispatch from Viceroy Wei of Nanking stating that he (the Viceroy) had received a telegram from the Kwang-tung and Kwangsi gentry and merchants, residing in Shanghai, charging him (Governor Wang) with having "borrowed French troops and French money." These charges had struck the latter with supreme astonishment and he now desired to deny them in the strongest terms. Last year when he first took over the governorship of Kwangsi there was at the time neither a sufficiency of troops in the province, nor money to pay them, nor any weapons to arm them. Subsequently he raised and got together ten battalions of Hunanese troops and through the kindness of the late Viceroy Liu K'un-yi obtained proper firearms for them. The late Viceroy T'ao Mu and Governor T'ao Shou of Canton then raised the funds to pay his troops whilst from Viceroy Chan Chih-tung he obtained two battalions of twelve quick-firing Armstrong fieldpieces. Subsequent bodies of troops raised to increase his forces were armed from supplies sent by Governor T'ao Shou, who had now become Viceroy of the Two Kwang upon the death of the late T'ao Mu, and who also sent to Kwangsi a force of 2,000 men to reinforce his (Wang's) army. With such assistance Governor Wang declares that he has been enabled to restore peace throughout Kwangsi, except in some unimportant portions in the hills. He (Wang) is therefore justly indignant at the men who have been spreading such libellous news about him, and also accuses the Shanghai newspapers of having been instrumental in disseminating matters detrimental to his good name. Governor Wang is therefore anxious to know who are the gentry and merchants of the Two Kwang provinces who have been spreading all these rumours and asks Vice President Tang to make secret inquiries about the culprits and send him their names so that he may denounce such to the Throne for the public welfare as mischief-makers to the hurt of the Empire and not on private grounds of malice against these men.

A POSSIBLE DANGER TO NAVIGATION.

There is every reason to believe that changes due to volcanic action are constantly going on in this part of the world in the bed of the ocean, (says the N. C. D. News), and we are glad to publish the following letter just received by the Harbour Master's department here—

S.S. Glenisk,

Shanghai, 28th May, 1903.

To the Harbour Master,

Shanghai.

Dear Sir,—I have the honour to submit the following report:—"On the 14th inst. whilst on passage from Singapore to Hongkong I passed about one mile East of the Charlotte Bank (73° N. 107° 35' E.) and noticed a very decided line of broken water on the centre of the bank. As the sea elsewhere was quite smooth and the wind almost nil I imagine there must be less water than shown on charts. I have during the last 16 years passed this place in all sorts of weather and never saw broken water before and have therefore deemed it proper to report the matter to you, having also reported the matter in Hongkong."

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(Sd.) JOHN RAFFERTY,

Master, Glenisk.

THE DISTURBANCE IN YUNNAN.

MISSIONARIES MURDERED.

Some corroboration of the news printed in our columns on Monday and yesterday is furnished in a special wire to the Shanghai Times, forwarded from Peking on the 28th ult. It states that the wives between Mon Shi Hsien and Tung Hae-Hsien in Yunnan has been interrupted. The mob from Lingnan cut the communication between the two districts. It is also reported that 2,000 French soldiers have invaded the former district. Tung Tseng To, the Viceroy of Yunnan-Kweichow, wired that the mob was all miners in a copper mine near Lingnan. Their number exceeds 100,000. They are supposed to be in sympathy with the Kwangsi rebels, but so far they have not found opportunity to cooperate with the latter. The Wai Wu Pu is said to have received a message in cyphers that the mob have had an encounter with the French, many of the latter were captured. The missionaries, mostly Romanists, have since sought refuge in Yunnanfu, the capital of the province. One of the parties of missionaries on its way was attacked by the mob, and two or three of them were killed. The mob that attacked Lingnan and captured it, were in many instances armed with modern munitions. The number of the mob at present is 200,000.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY

TRADE THERAPION MARK

This successful and highly popular remedy, used in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Robert, Velpeau and others, combines in the Therapion the best of a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.THERAPION No. 1 is a remarkably short time, often a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs, effectually suspending infection, those of which cause irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.THERAPION No. 2 is for improvement of the blood, scrofula, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swell-ings of the joints, secondary symptoms, gonorrhea, rheumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, arsenic, etc., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.THERAPION No. 3 is for exhaustion, impaired vitality, sleeplessness, and all the depressing consequences of daily error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigor to the debilitated.THERAPION is sold by the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. Price in England 4s 6 & 6d. In order, state which of the three numbers is required, and enclose above Trade Mark, which is a facsimile of word "Therapion" as it appears on the British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty's Home Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.Sold by A. S. WATSON & Co., Limited, Hongkong, China and Manila. [144d]

WEATHER-FORECASTS AND

STORM-WARNINGS ISSUED FROM THE HONGKONG OBSERVATORY.

METEOROLOGICAL SIGNALS.

Meteorological signals are hoisted on the mast beside the Time-ball at Kowloon Point for the information of masters of vessels leaving the port. They do not imply that bad weather is expected here—

A DRUM indicates a typhoon to the Eastward of the Colony, (i.e., in the East quadrant, N.E. to S.E.)

A BALL indicates a typhoon to the Westward of the Colony, (i.e., in the West quadrant, S.W. to N.W.)

A CONE Point Upwards indicates a typhoon to the Northward of the Colony, (i.e., in the North quadrant, N.W. to N.E.)

A CONE Point Downwards indicates a typhoon to the Southward of the Colony, (i.e., in the South quadrant, S.E. to S.W.)

Red Signals indicate that the centre is believed to be more than 300 miles away from the Colony.

Black Signals indicate that the centre is believed to be less than 300 miles away from the Colony.

NIGHT SIGNALS.

Two lanterns hoisted vertically indicate bad weather in the Colony and that the wind is expected to veer.

Two lanterns hoisted horizontally indicate bad weather in the Colony and that the wind is expected to back.

The signals are repeated on the flagstaff of the Godown Company at Kowloon, and also by day only, at the Harbour Office and on H.M.'s Receiving Ship.

LOCAL STORM-WARNINGS.

The Colony itself is warned of approaching typhoons by means of the Typhoon Gun placed at the foot of the mast, which is fired whenever a strong gale of wind is expected to blow here.

NOTICE BOARDS.

Notice boards are placed at—Joint Cable Companies' Office.
 Ferry Company's Pier, Ice House Street.
 Blake Pier.
 Post Office.
 Harbour Office.
 Office of the Wharf & Godown Company, Kowloon.

WEATHER-FORECASTS AND STORM-WARNINGS are exhibited on the above boards daily about 11 a.m., and also at other hours, day or night, whenever necessary. Information of importance is also issued by "Express"

THE CHINA COAST METEOROLOGICAL REGISTER is exhibited at the same places daily about noon. It contains observations made at Hongkong and at a number of stations in the Far East, together with Remarks, Weather-forecasts, and information regarding the existence and movements of typhoons based thereon.

THE LAW OF STORMS.

Further information concerning the weather to be expected while signals are hoisted, and sailing directions, are given in "The Law of Storms in the Eastern Seas."

F. G. Figg,

Acting Director.
